

SAVEtheDATE

September 7-8, 2016 • Long Beach, California

Join us in the Fall of 2016 for the 2nd California Adaptation Forum, bringing together a diverse audience of local, regional, and state leaders committed to addressing California's adaptation needs.

THE 2016 CALIFORNIA ADAPTATION FORUM WILL FEATURE

- A series of plenaries with high-level government and business leaders
- A variety of breakout sessions on essential adaptation topics
- Regional project tours highlighting adaptation efforts in Southern California
- Pre-forum workshops on tools and strategies for implementing adaptation solutions

FORUM PARTICIPANTS WILL INCLUDE

Transportation, health, agricultural and natural resource professionals; planners, architects, and urban designers; local elected officials, community members and nonprofits; along with water agencies, flood control agencies and air districts.

CONTACT US

For questions about the forum, contact Khrystyna Platte: kplatte@lgc.org

For information on how to become a Forum sponsor, contact Kif Scheuer: kscheuer@lgc.org

LOOKING BACK – THE FIRST CALIFORNIA ADAPTATION FORUM

The 2014 California Adaptation Forum launched the statewide adaptation conversation by bringing together 800 local, regional and state leaders to form a community of action, committed to addressing California's adaptation needs. The program featured cutting-edge policies, projects, programs and partnerships, as well as tools and strategies that address the challenges community leaders face in developing and implementing adaptation solutions.

SIGN UP NOW for News and Updates at CaliforniaAdaptationForum.org

This event is being hosted by the Local Government Commission in partnership with the State of California

